Wreck on Savannah Valley Road.

Train No. 21 on the Anderson branch of the C. & W. C. road left McCormick yesterday morning on schedule time, and when four miles out, on nearing the third trestle east of Badwell, discovered the trestle to be on fire. The train was in charge of Conductor J. H. Bush, engineer Ulrich Greason and fireman J. A. Smith. Greason and Smith saw their danger too late to stop the train, and to save themselves they took refuge on one side of the engine when they jumped to the ground.

The engine broke loose from the train, but caught on and righted itself on the track, while the tender and its loaded cars went down. Two of the wrecked cars were loaded with fertilizer, two with lumber, one with general merchandise, one with coal. Damage about $5,000.

The wreck being reported by telephone from Badwell, conductor Thorne Smith and engineer Rheney, with engine and cab, went to the rescue. Conductor Bush was not hurt. Engineer Greason was considerably bruised, but not seriously injured. Fireman J. A. Smith is hurt badly about his shoulders and spine. Dr. Fuller was promptly on hand and attended the hurt engineer and fireman with his usual dispatch.

Capt. Stillwell with a force of hands went at once to the wreck to render aid to the injured, and to get the load clear of debris, etc.—McCormick Messenger, and inst.

The Mills Prosperous.

Some months ago a party of capitalists from Fayetteville, Ark., visited Columbia and other South Carolina points and the report of the committee secured by cotton mill men yesterday presents a pleasing picture of the conditions here. They found that the majority of the mills, beginning with plants worth from $50,000 to $100,000, had doubled, trebled and quadrupled in capacity from their surplus earnings, and that seven mills have plants worth at least $1,000,000 each. They mentioned especially Polk's, where a population of 6,000, under the mill company's government solely, and following a reference to its free public school and free library, said:

"Up all the mill communities the presidents spend money liberally to provide comforts and protection for the operatives. As a result of this broad-gauged, beneficent policy, the most amicable relations exist between capital and labor. Labor organizations are unknown here. The operatives are happy and contented, and many of them are laying up modest bank accounts."

"We satisfied ourselves thoroughly that the mills of Carolina are prosperous. They are making good cloth and good dividends. From various stockholders we learned that every well-managed mill is laying up a solid surplus, in addition to declaring 8 to 10 per cent. annual dividends."

"From brokers we learned that very few stocks are selling below par."

"From a mill president we learned that he made last year $46,000 clear on a mill capitalized at $300,000."

"Everywhere we saw new mills in progress of erection, and old mills doubling their capacities. Capital would not go into such investments if the business had not been found profitable. South Carolina now stands next to Massachusetts as a cotton manufacturing state, and if the present rate increase continues it will in a few years lead the Union."—Columbia Record, 5th inst.

In and Around Roberts.

Farmers in this community are getting ready to put in their fertilizer; some are very near ready, others on account of "bad luck" are behind.

"We are having some of Longfellow's 'days' here lately, 'dark and dreary.' Rev. Mr. Merritt filled his appointment at New Hope last Sunday morning and at Providence Sunday afternoon."

Last Thursday a fine girl made its appearance at K. S. Harbin's. Look out, boys, the girls are coming on."

Quite a nice little crowd enjoyed themselves at Mr. Ross Gaines' last Saturday night. Among them were Lester Gary and charming sister, Miss Ethel, and Miss Mamie Moore, from Anderson. This was Miss Mamie's first visit down on our side, and we hope she "liked our looks" and will come again. Miss Ethel went back Sunday and one of our boys went with her and had a good time. She lost his eye sight one year ago. Through all of his trouble he didn't complain, but seemed as though he just left it all to his Father above. He joined the Methodist Church in 1894, and was baptized by Rev. W. B. Hawkins, who conducted his funeral services at the same church on Saturday following his death. Death is something we all have to face one day, sooner or later, for Christ has said, "in an hour you will not see the son of man cometh," and we all ought to look for that awful day.

The same little "Violet."

An Obituary.

On Wednesday, Feb. 24th, the cold, icy mists of death clasped the beautiful Mary Bell Lowe in its ruthless embrace. She was the daughter of J. B. and Alice Lowe, the visit of death is never sad, but oh how heart rending to surviving relatives and friends when a dear daughter, a dear sister, a dear friend is taken in her young and tender years.

On the day following her remains were interred in the First Creek Churchyard, after appropriate funeral services conducted by her pastor, Rev. R. E. Small, in the presence of a large congregation of relatives and friends. A Friend.

A Silver Tea.

The parsonage of the St. John's M. E. Church was the scene of a beautiful entertainment Monday evening, after a social gathering, given by the ladies of the Woman's Missionary Society of that Church to celebrate the 25th or silver anniversary of the Society.

The members of the Mission Societies of the other churches were invited, but when the parsonage was opened all was bright, warm and cheerful within. Mrs. J. B. Marshall and Mrs. J. T. Jones cordially received the guests at the door. Miss L. C. Hubbard, Mrs. M. E. Ligon, Mrs. M. B. Kelly, Mrs. M. W. Gantt and Mrs. W. H. Nardin were on duty in the parlors to see that every one had a pleasant time.

Two pretty little maidens—Misses Lalla Marshall and Lou Ellen Ligon—held silver baskets at the door to receive the silver offerings, which were freely given.

Across the hall were the two dates 1879-1904 in large silver figures. The parlors and halls were beautifully decorated in pure white drapery—emblem of purity—dotted with silver stars, stars to indicate brightness, silver, the anniversary. Festoons of the beautiful green ivy all around and through the rooms, emblem of evergreen living, lasting. They were indeed beautiful emblems of a Missionary Society. There were many blooming plants, ferns, palms, etc., to lend their beauty to the silver tea. The music was much enjoyed also.

The guests were invited into the dining room by Mrs. S. C. Baker and Mrs. O. H. Hill. In the center of the room a table, in snowy white linen, held vases of white lilies, ferns and numberless lighted candles in old-fashioned silver candelabras and cut glass candelabra. Also white carnations were added to the prevailing white, silver and green decorations.

A delightful tea was served by Mrs. Eugene Harris, Mrs. John M. Hubbard, Mrs. G. F. Bigby and Miss Sue Whitefield.

The souvenirs were badges of white ribbon with the two dates, 1874-1904, and were given by Misses Georgia Marshall, Francis Kelly and Louise Bigby. It was a very pretty, unique entertainment, which all seemed to enjoy very much.

Let us hope the Society will do more in the next 25 years than in the past to spread the gospel of the whole world, and may their golden anniversary be a rich harvest of fruit for the Master's use. A Guest.

Denver Dots.

Quite a number of our people are on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Eskew's baby boy, Robert, has been sick for ten days with tonsillitis.

Mrs. W. E. Chapman is quite ill with a severe attack of rheumatism. Little Henry Jolly had his arm broken at school Monday by a fall from a tree which he was climbing. Dr. Duckworth was called and set the bone, which the little fellow endured bravely.

Miss Mary Blackman's friends will be sorry to learn that she is not improving, and it is feared another operation will have to be performed on her foot for necrosis of the bone.

William Elrod, who has been critically ill ever since Christmas, is now much improved and can sit up a little. Miss Nannie Holston is still very low with little hope of her recovery.

Mr. Doc Blackman, of Washington, G. D., died on the 6th inst. and was brought back to his former home and buried at Sandy Springs on the 8th. He was a member of the Methodist Church and a good man. His death was the result of the infirmities of old age.

Mrs. Elsie Harbin and children, of Westminster, S. C., is visiting her father, Mr. T. R. Simpson.

Mrs. J. M. Browne returned last week from a pleasant visit of ten days to relatives at Carnesville, Ga. She was accompanied home by her nephew Oscar Miller. This was his first visit to Anderson, and he was pleased with the country and especially the Electric City.

The people of Carnesville are very much pleased over the railroad which is being graded from that place to Athens which will afford them many facilities not enjoyed before. Lavinia, ten miles off, is at present their nearest shipping point.

Le Chaparral of Chandler, S. C., came over last week and brought his brother, Prof. W. E. Chapman, his fine horse and buggy.

Mrs. Sylvester Elrod visited relatives near Anderson and in Abbeville last week.

Misses Edwin and Mamie Jolly made a pleasant visit recently to relatives near Harmony Grove, Ga.

Mrs. John Smith, of Lebanon, visited her sister, Mrs. Rufus Orr, at Westminster, S. C., last week.

Incognita.

Death of a Former Citizen of Anderson County.

Mr. Dock McConnell died at his home in Greenville County on Feb. 26, 1904, after a brief illness of pneumonia. He was a pious, upright man and was honored and highly esteemed by all who knew him. He was 56 years old and was born in Anderson County. When a child his parents moved to Georgia and lived until he was grown, when they returned to Anderson County. He was the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. John McConnell who preceded him to the grave some years ago. One brother and two sisters survive him—Mr. Cross McConnell, of Anderson, Mrs. Caroline Bellama, of Georgia, and Mrs. Elvira McGee, of Anderson County. He was married May 27, 1869, to Miss Fannie McCoy, of Anderson, who with five sons and three daughters survive him. He was a good faithful member of Pelzer Baptist Church, having joined the Church at the age of 16 years at Reed Creek, Ga. He has many friends and relatives in Anderson County who will learn of his death with great sorrow. His remains were interred in the Midway Churchyard, Rev. Mr. Bussey, of Pelzer, conducting the funeral services. To his bereaved family and relatives we extend our profoundest sympathy. A Friend.

Court of Common Pleas.

The Court of Common Pleas convened Monday morning, with Judge J. C. Kitch presiding. Three cases had been entered on the calendar for trial on Monday, but two of them had been previously settled, and the third could not be taken up on account of the absence of material witnesses. The day was accordingly spent in disposing of equity matters.

On yesterday morning the case of Charming vs. the Taxway was taken up for trial. This was an action for damages alleged to have been sustained by the plaintiff in falling from a scaffold while working for the defendant company. A mistrial resulted.

The case of Mrs. Sallie Roberts against W. W. Harris for $1,000 damages was next tried. This action was brought by the plaintiff to recover damages for personal injury inflicted upon her by the defendant. The case will go to the jury this morning.

The New Earle's Bridge.

The following letter has been received by County Supervisor Vandiver from the Virginia Bridge and Iron Company, the firm that has the contract for the erection of the new Earle's bridge over Seneca River:

Roanoke Va., March 3, 1904.
Mr. J. N. Vandiver, County Supervisor, Anderson, S. C.—Dear Sir: We regret to have to advise you that the shipment of your bridge has been delayed on account of our failure to secure material, orders for which we placed early in January. We have written letters and sent telegrams by the dozen but we did not receive advice of shipment until this morning.

We now expect to ship your bridge about the last of next week, and will begin erection very soon after delivery of the material at the site. We are very sorry that this delay has occurred, but we assure you that it has been unavoidable, and that we are anxious to complete the bridge as any of your people can possibly help.

Hoping this will be satisfactory, we are, Very truly yours,
Virginia Bridge & Iron Co.

Letter to G. E. Prince, Anderson, S. C.

Dear Sir: As your business is to get people into and out of trouble, suppose you consider their paint; it makes 'em almost as much trouble as money, except of course matrimony.

They buy poor paint a good deal; they don't mean to; they don't know any better; they buy without thinking. Bad paint isn't good. It looks good enough for a year; then begins to get rusty, but changes so slowly, one don't notice it.

Looking for a house dry inside, the good and bad of it is to be seen rotting and rusting. Takes good paint to do it. Good and bad paint are sold at one price or about that. One can't go by the price at all; as with lawyers, the price has nothing to do with goodness or badness; and coats are worse yet; the painter and a sheriff come in for their share.

But the probability is that a man, who paints Devoe, will come out on top.

Yours truly,
F. W. DEVOE & CO.

Raw or Inflamed Lungs

Yield rapidly to the wonderful curative and healing qualities of Foley's Honey and Tar. It prevents pneumonia and consumption from a hard cold settled on the lungs. "My daughter had a terrible cough which settled on her lungs," says N. Jackson, of Danville, Ill. "We tried many remedies without relief, until we gave her Foley's Honey and Tar which cured her." Evans Pharmacy.

Dangers of Pneumonia.

A cold at this time if neglected is liable to cause pneumonia which is so often fatal, and even when the patient has recovered the lungs are weakened, making them peculiarly susceptible to the development of consumption. Foley's Honey and Tar will stop the cough, heal and strengthen the lungs and prevent pneumonia. Lo grippe coughs yield quickly to the wonderful curative qualities of Foley's Honey and Tar. There is nothing else "just as good." Evans Pharmacy.

A Severe Cold for Three Months.

The following letter from A. J. Nussbaum, of Batesville, Ind., tells its own story. "I suffered for three months with a severe cold. A druggist prepared me some medicine, and a physician prescribed for me, yet I did not improve. I then tried Foley's Honey and Tar, and eight doses cured me." Refuse substitutes. Evans Pharmacy.

The Secretary of State has issued a commission to the Southern Paint factory to be capitalized at $100,000 with its offices and plant in Columbia. The corporation are: Capt. W. B. Lowrance, of Columbia, and Mr. G. W. Painter, of Philadelphia. This concern will use the ochre in Richland County.

Summer School for Teachers.

The State Superintendent of Education has issued the following circular to the County Superintendents of Education, which is of great interest to the teachers of our public schools:

Columbia, S. C., March 5, 1904.
To County Superintendents of Education: Gentlemen: Just as soon as it can well be done, I desire to organize the summer schools. I am writing to ask you to canvass the teachers in your county and find out as nearly as possible how many will attend a State, county or district school.

The State summer school will be held at Winthrop College. A committee of the board of trustees of that college asked and secured a special appropriation for that purpose, so that we will proceed very soon to arrange for a large State summer school. We hope to secure a very excellent faculty and do a splendid month's work at the State summer school.

Now, as to county or district summer schools, we have quite a problem. We must not have any small schools, such as were conducted in three or four counties last year. If we can get forty or fifty teachers together in a county school, then the results will justify the labor and expenditure but, if we are to have only eight or ten, and some of those school children, then we must consolidate several counties and run district schools. I am confident that, in some sections, it will be well to put at least two counties together and hold a school in one county this year. At all events, we must strengthen the weak places and reach the teachers for whom the summer schools were designed.

Please present this matter to your county teachers' association and also to the teachers who are not in the association, and write me as fully and as early as possible as to the conditions and outlook in your county.

Sincerely yours,
O. K. Martin, Supt.

A Wonderful Saving.

The largest Methodist Church in Georgia calculates to use over one hundred gallons of the usual kind of mixed paint in painting their church.

They used only 32 gallons of the Longman & Martineau Paint mixed with 24 gallons of linseed oil. Actual cost of paint made was less than $1.20 per gallon. Saved over eighty ($80.00) dollars in paint, and got a big donation besides.

Every Church will be given a liberal quotation whenever they paint. Many Houses are well painted with four gallons of L. & M. and three gallons of linseed oil mixed therewith.
